NEWS:

The Rutland Sportsman's Club Game Dinner was held on March 1st. It was a sold out event. The dinner started with appetizers including Sil, Perch Tenders, Smoked Salmon, Smoked Goose Breast, and Pheasant Cheese Roll with Almonds. The next course included venison stew, fish chowder, and moose chili.

The main course was next with a huge selection of dishes including frog legs, moose roast, venison roast, sautéed turtle, rabbit lumpia, raccoon rollups, barbequed beaver, venison meatloaf, sweet and sour bear, venison sausage gumbo, and wild boar stuffed peppers. When it was all over and the cakes were served for dessert there was not a hungry person in the club. Our guests had nothing but compliments on the dishes served. Many saying they could not wait to come back for next year's game dinner.

It takes days of preparation leading up to the day of the dinner and a force of people the day of the dinner to make sure that all of these dishes are properly made and ready to be served on time to our 180 guests. Once again it was done with out a mix up. Throughout the year fishers and hunters are donating their catches to the club. Some of these people are our members some are from outside of our club. Thank you to all of the people that did this to ensure we would have a wide variety of dishes. Thank you to Bob Hoch, director of this event, for spending so much time throughout the year making sure everything was properly cleaned and stored. Bob wanted to make sure that a special thanks went out to Al Glockner for being at the club all week making sure that all of the food preparation was being taken care of and to ensure that all would run smooth the day of the game dinner. There are so many people that put in hours to help with this event, you know who you are, and we appreciate your help and thank you for being there.

The Rutland Sportsman's Club wanted to thank our friends Helen and Jack at Cheoy Lee's II in West Boylston and our friends Kevin and Kathy at both Finders Pub and Keepers Pub in West Boylston for their donations that helped make this years Game Dinner a success. THANK YOU! Please remember these restaurants when you are in the West Boylston area. They serve great food and drinks and are fun places to go. It is the best way to thank those who help us.
